The Bouloses coordinate “Celebrate Jesus” rallies in Lebanon and neighboring countries, where thousands of people have heard about Jesus Christ – some for the first time. The ministry stems from a vision Chaouki had in the late 1990s to share Christ with large groups of people. Because he and Maha grew up in Lebanon he knew the religious freedom in Lebanon might provide “the open door to reach the peoples of the Middle East,” Chaouki said.

And it has, but it’s not the only way this couple is the presence of Christ. They’ve facilitated Vacation Bible Schools, sports camps, children’s ministry and prison outreach. They help distribute food and medicine to families in need. They have given street children shoes and provided women with dental care. Now, one of their priorities is opening a conference and training center for churches in the region.

Give

Chaouki and Maha are supported through CBF's Offering for Global Missions, which funds salaries and ministry and living expenses of many CBF field personnel. Your gifts to the Offering are vital to keeping field personnel like the Bouloses on the mission field. Support their ministries by giving online at www.thefellowship.info/give.

About the Fellowship

CBF is a fellowship of Baptist Christians and churches who share a passion for the Great Commission and a commitment to Baptist principles of faith and practice. The Fellowship's mission is to serve Christians and churches as they discover and fulfill their God-given mission. This includes commissioning CBF field personnel to ministry around the world and facilitating connections between those personnel and partner congregations.
