The Earls reside in Skopje, Macedonia. Arville works to reconcile ethnic groups among Albanians, Macedonians, Turks and the Romany. Through fellowship, Arville facilitates communication about divisive issues, helping people understand one another and seek reconciliation.

“Reconciliation doesn’t happen on a large scale – it happens person to person and in small groups, which is how we direct our ministry rather than trying to reconcile the whole nation,” Arville said.

The focus of Sheila’s ministry is the “Future of the Family” kindergarten, which offers a free education to children in need and classes for their parents.

“In the beginning we noticed that the parents, especially the women, had little social contact with each other and the outside world,” said Sheila. “They have learned to trust us and we think that’s the basis for reconciliation. Trust is the most important element, and it seems that they are more able to trust God again when they trust us and one another.”

Give

The Earls are supported through CBF's Offering for Global Missions, which funds salaries and ministry and living expenses of many CBF field personnel. Your gifts to the Offering are vital to keeping field personnel like the Earls on the mission field. Support their ministries by giving online at www.thefellowship.info/give.

About the Fellowship

CBF is a fellowship of Baptist Christians and churches who share a passion for the Great Commission and a commitment to Baptist principles of faith and practice. The Fellowship's mission is to serve Christians and churches as they discover and fulfill their God-given mission. This includes commissioning CBF field personnel to ministry around the world and facilitating connections between those personnel and partner congregations. Learn more at www.thefellowship.info.
